

Parish Paths Partnership report for February 2024

The annual paths survey was completed towards the end of January and the information required by the PRow department has been despatched with a request for the basic grant to cover expenses. Only minor maintenance requirements were identified and the parish paths are in good condition.

Jon Roseway